NARRATIVE:

Nathan Vandewetering has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include inflicting corporal punishment on a spouse, false imprisonment, battery, assault with a deadly weapon likely to cause great bodily injury, theft, theft of personal property, falsifying checks, receiving stolen property, DUI, possession of controlled substances, petty theft with prior convictions, possession of narcotic controlled substances and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for inflicting corporal punishment on a spouse. Vandewetering was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 26, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Vandewetering qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for inflicting corporal punishment on a spouse is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
